

Writing prompts

Once upon a time....

It was a dark and stormy night....

I have a secret.

We had been the best of friends.

The dog sat outside the grocery store.

I couldn't believe what I was happening!

Five years ago I would never have guessed

I got into the car and started driving.

She tried to forget him, but never could.

Out of the ashes, arose a hero

.

Just as you fall asleep, the phone rings.

She had the perfect party planned.

She had the perfect vacation planned.

"Hello."

"Goodbye."

She closed the door behind her.

He couldn't take it back.

He soon realized he had crashed the wrong party.

In a quiet bar in a little town famous people, past and present, stop by for a drink.

You open a steamer trunk in your grandma's attic, and you can't believe what you find.

.

You're a bank teller. An old woman walks up to your window and dumps out a bag full of money to deposit.

I didn't see that coming.

There's something you don't know about me.

"I can't believe it's been 30 years!"

It was like I had been transported into a romantic comedy.

I have an unusual superpower.

I couldn't have been more wrong.

I stood frozen.

Just as you fall asleep, the phone rings.

I poured myself a strong one.

I knew I should quit, but I couldn't help myself.

I had money once.

He was the cutest baby I'd ever seen.

They hadn't seen each other since high school.

You've noticed a stray animal hanging around your house. One day you let it in.

By the time this party is finished, three people's lives will be changed forever.

